Rustburg Beats Appomattox 78-64

The Rustburg Red Devils held off a second half threat by Appomattox County High School(Appomattox High and Carver - Price consolidated) and went on to win 78-64 in a Group II, District IV basketball game played at Rustburg. Rustburg is now 10-6 for the year and Appomattox had a 4-12 mark.

Rustburg got off to a 24-14 first quarter lead and 42-30 half time lead behind the shooting of Llewelyn Wood and Darrell Bradley who combined for 20 points in that half. Sammy Page and Ricky Garrett were the sparks for Appomattox in the first half as they scored 24 points between them.

Appomattox found the range in the second half on the foul shooting of Page and the outside shooting of Welton Gafford who was held to two points in the first half. They outscored Rustburg 17-8 in the third quarter. Early in the fourth quarter Appomattox cut the Rustburg lead to three points, 61-58, with over four left in the game, but Rustburg came back to build their lead back up again as Appomattox had turnovers after turnover trying to get a fast break going.

Llewelyn Wood led Rustburg with 22 points and Kirby Hood had 18 to pace Rustburg to their win. Darrell Bradley was also in double figures for Rustburg with 14 markers.

Sammy Page took game honors with 24 points, five field goals and 14 of 17 free throws. Ricky Garrett was right behind him with 23 for Appomattox and Welton Gafford had 11 for Appomattox.

Rustburg hit on 32 of 84 attempts from the floor and pulled down 47 rebounds and had 12 turnovers.

Appomattox hit on 20 of 59 shots from the floor, got 44 rebounds and had 21 turnovers.

The big difference was in the first quarter when Rustburg out rebounded Appomattox almost three to one.

Appo Girls Down Rustburg 58-35

Leonda Hudson continued her great display of shooting as she scored 34 points in leading the Appomattox girls to a 58-35 district win in a basketball game last Friday at Rustburg.

Appomattox got off to a 20-8 first quarter lead as Hudson scored 14 points. She was held to only two in the second, but came back with nine in each of the last two periods.

Kay Thomas shot 100% from the floor as she hit for 11 points coming on three long set shots and a lay-up plus three foul shots to give added punch in scoring.

Appomattox led 27-16 at the half 37-23 after three quarters and outscored Rustburg 21-12 in the last quarter.

Rustburg was led by C. McCoy with 12 points and Linda Woodridge with eight.

Becky Harris and Kay Thomas controlled the boards for Appomattox and starred on defense.

Appomattox had 22 field goals and 14 of 22 free shots to 13 field goals and nine of 21 for Rustburg.

Hudson Goes Over 1,000 Mark Appomattox Romps Over Glass

Leonda Hudson went over the thousand point mark as she dropped in 58 points last week against E. C. Glass in a 90-49 win in a non-district game for the Appomattox girls in Appomattox.

In scoring her record breaking 58 points, Hudson put on probably one of the greatest showing ever seen here in Appomattox as she needed only 20 points to hit the 1000 point mark at the outset of the game.

Appomattox got off to a fast 33-15 first quarter leads Hudson got 22 of those 33. Her 20th point came with 1:41 left in the first quarter on a driving layup on which a charing foul was called, but the basket was good. The game was stopped for a few minutes as she received a standing ovation that brought tears to the great Appomattox star. However, her night was just beginning as she got eight more points in the second quarter as she had 30 of Appomattox' 48 points at the half. Glass had 31 at this time, In the second half she still had the hot-foot hand on the floor as she got 12 in the third and 16 more in the fourth. She had 26 field goals and six free shots on the night to wind up with a 1038 points so far in her career.

Wanda Hillsman was next to Hudson's 58 points with 12 and Kathy Martin had 11. For the night Appomattox hit on 39 of 82 attempts from the floor for almost 48%. They pulled down 39 rebounds.

Carolyn Gentry was the top scorer for E. C. Glass with 25 points coming on 10 field goals and five free throws. Vickie Smith was next with nine.

Besides the great display of shooting by Hudson, she was credited with 11 steals, four blocked shoots and five assists. Her shots ranged from long jumpers and jumpers to twisting lay-ups under the baskets.

Kay Thomas, Becky Harris, and Hudson were all strong on defense as many as Hudson's points were set-up on defense and rebounding of these girls.

Waited For Good One!

Miss Estelie Wooldridge, of Appomattox, holding ball, saw first basketball game Tuesday night, Feb. 10, and it was a record-breaker for Leonda Hudson (right) standing with E. Carter Martin, Glenda Paulette and Nancye Mathews. Wooldridge is a twin of George Wiley Wooldridge. Fans were quick to explain that part of the noise and shouting was caused by Leonda racking up 1038 points breaking the 1,000 point mark for a career high and for making 58 points in one game, a record for the popular co-captain of the ACHS girls' team.

Chamber Commerce Membership - 73

Chamber of Commerce membership now stands at 73 individual and business memberships, according to a report submitted by treasurer T. DeWitt Evans to the monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Feb. 6. Evans reported eight individual membership renewals and six business membership renewals which brings current membership to the 73 total. President Roy A. Moon told the board that the Chamber continues to receive requests for hundreds of pamphlets about Appomattox. Several thousand of the Appomattox brochures are sent through the Va. Travel Council to motels, restaurants and other tourist stops.

The post of vice-president is open and will need to be filled from the board membership, the president said, because of the transfer of Park Supt. Alvoid Reedy.

The Pastor Speaks

HE CARETH FOR YOU

1 Peter 5:7

"Casting all your cares upon Him for He careth for you."

One of the biggest responsibilities of a Pastor in the present day and age is counseling with people who are under severe strain for various reasons. I would like to take the time this week for the benefit of those that might be under a heavy burden, to point you to Jesus, the only one that can really lift a burden. To those who are laboring under the burden of sin or heartache, Jesus says in Matthew 11:28, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. . ."

To those who are hungering and thirsting after life Jesus is the water of life, John 4:16. He is the bread of life to those that are hungering after Righteousness. John 6:35.

To those who are living in sin He says in Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

To those who feel like they have been forsaken and left out in life, the Bible declares that Jesus will never leave thee nor forsake thee, Hebrew 13:5.

To those who are bereaved over the loss of loved ones Psalms 46 tells us, "He is a refuge in time of trouble." To the Christian who has become discouraged and despondent He is the one that ever liveth to make intercession for us, Hebrew 7:25. To the poor and needy, He is the gift of God, Romans 6:23.

Have you been to Jesus, my friend? Have you trusted Him as your Saviour? If so are you trusting Him daily to supply your needs? Are you walking by His side? Do you commune with Him from day to day? If not make this day a day that you might say with Joshua of old, Joshua 24:15 "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE ULTIMATE TEST

Lesson for February 22, 1970

Background Scripture: Matthew 16:13-23; Isaiah 42; 1-4; Romans 10:1-13.
Devotional Reading: Psalms 19: 7-14.

If you go back over the first fifteen chapters of Matthew, you will find that Jesus' message has been concerned entirely with the coming of God's kingdom. Jesus has made no claims for himself as God's Son or Messiah. He has approached no one saying, "I am the Messiah, believe in me."

We can well understand, therefore, that there was a great diversity of opinion as to who he really was. Even the disciples must have wondered about his identity. Possibly there was even divided opinion among them.

What Do Men Say?

There came a day, however, when a great change would take place. Jesus had taken them out to Galilee to Caesarea Philippi where, far from the pressures of the crowds, they could talk quietly. They may have thought that this was to be one of Jesus' periodic "breathing spells," but they were to find it to be the very climax of his Galilean ministry. It was a day that was to change their own lives.

Here, for the first time, Jesus would inquire the question of his identity. First, he asks, "Who do men say that the Son of man is?" Whether Jesus is using "Son of man" to mean simply "man" or "messenger," we do not know. The disciples answer his question, listing four different people with whom he is identified by others. Some think he is John the Baptist returned from the dead, Both Jesus and John devoted their message to the coming of God's kingdom and the necessity for repentant preparation to enter it.

The Day of the Lord

Others believed that Jesus was the resurrected prophet Elijah. He had been one of Israel's greatest prophets, had lived and worked some nine hundred years before the birth of Jesus. It was believed that he had not died, but had been taken bodily into heaven, to return again to herald the restoration of Israel.

Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes, And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest he come and smite the land with a curse" (Malachi 4: 5,6).

Still others, the disciples reported, thought that Jesus was Jeremiah the prophet returned from the dead. Perhaps they detected the similarities between the message of Jesus and the oracles of the great prophet of the seventh century B.C. The phrase, "one of the prophets," indicates that there may have been still others with whom they identified him.

What Do You Say?

The second part of Jesus' question was by far the most important part: "But who do you say that I am?" It is natural that Simon Peter was the one who replied. He was impulsive and often seemed to speak for the others. "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God," he replied.

The word "Christ" (Christos in Greek) means Messiah, or "the appointed one." He also calls Jesus the "son of the living God." This means that he is saying that Jesus is actually more than Messiah, that in some way, he possesses God's own divine nature.

Human titles and designations seem to fail us when we approach Jesus. If we call him Saviour, he is that but he is also more. If we call him Messiah, he is that too, but he is more. No matter what names or titles we use for him, he is always more than we can say about him.

Actually, the most important thing is not what we say about him, but what we do. Jesus himself put it: "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." That is always the ultimate test.
